

CHARTS OF THE GREEK ECONOMY: 1996-2007

Dr. Kenneth Matziorinis
Hellas Capital

www.hellascapital.com

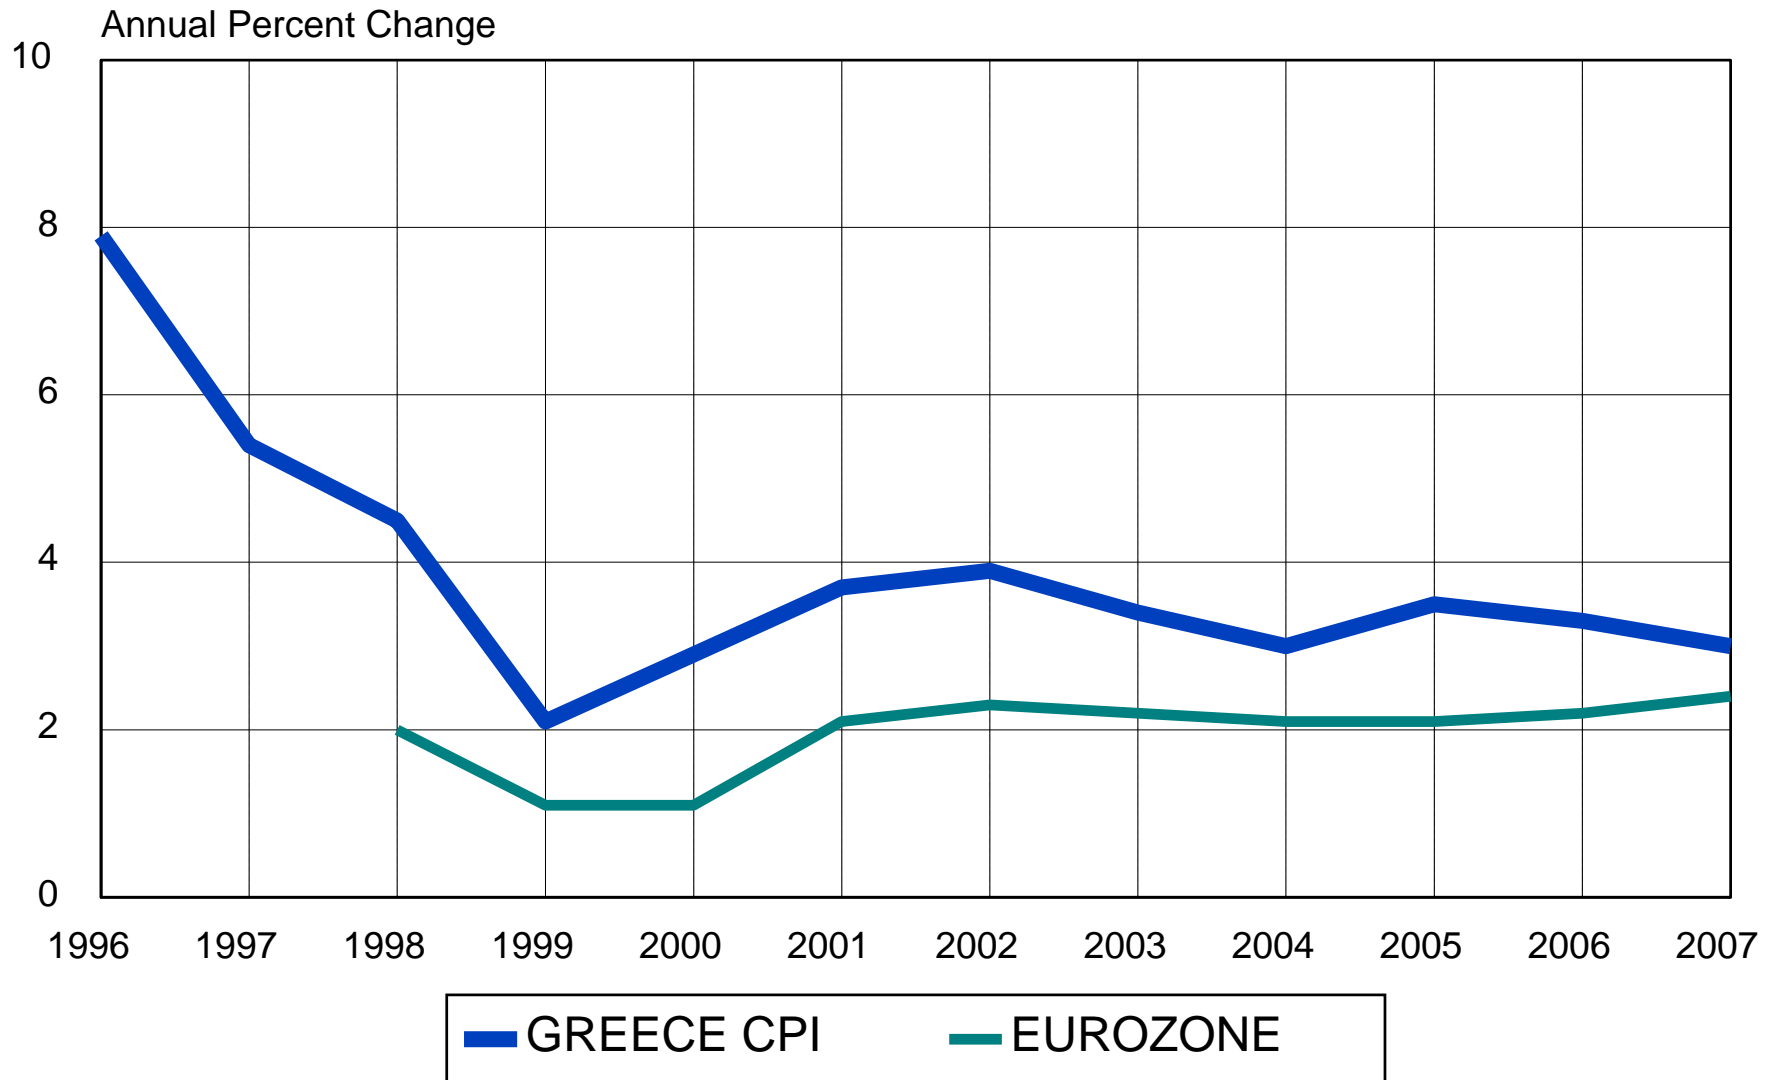

Rate of Growth: 1996-2007

Structural macroeconomic reforms and the Athens Olympics have maintained high growth despite the global slowdown of 2001-2003

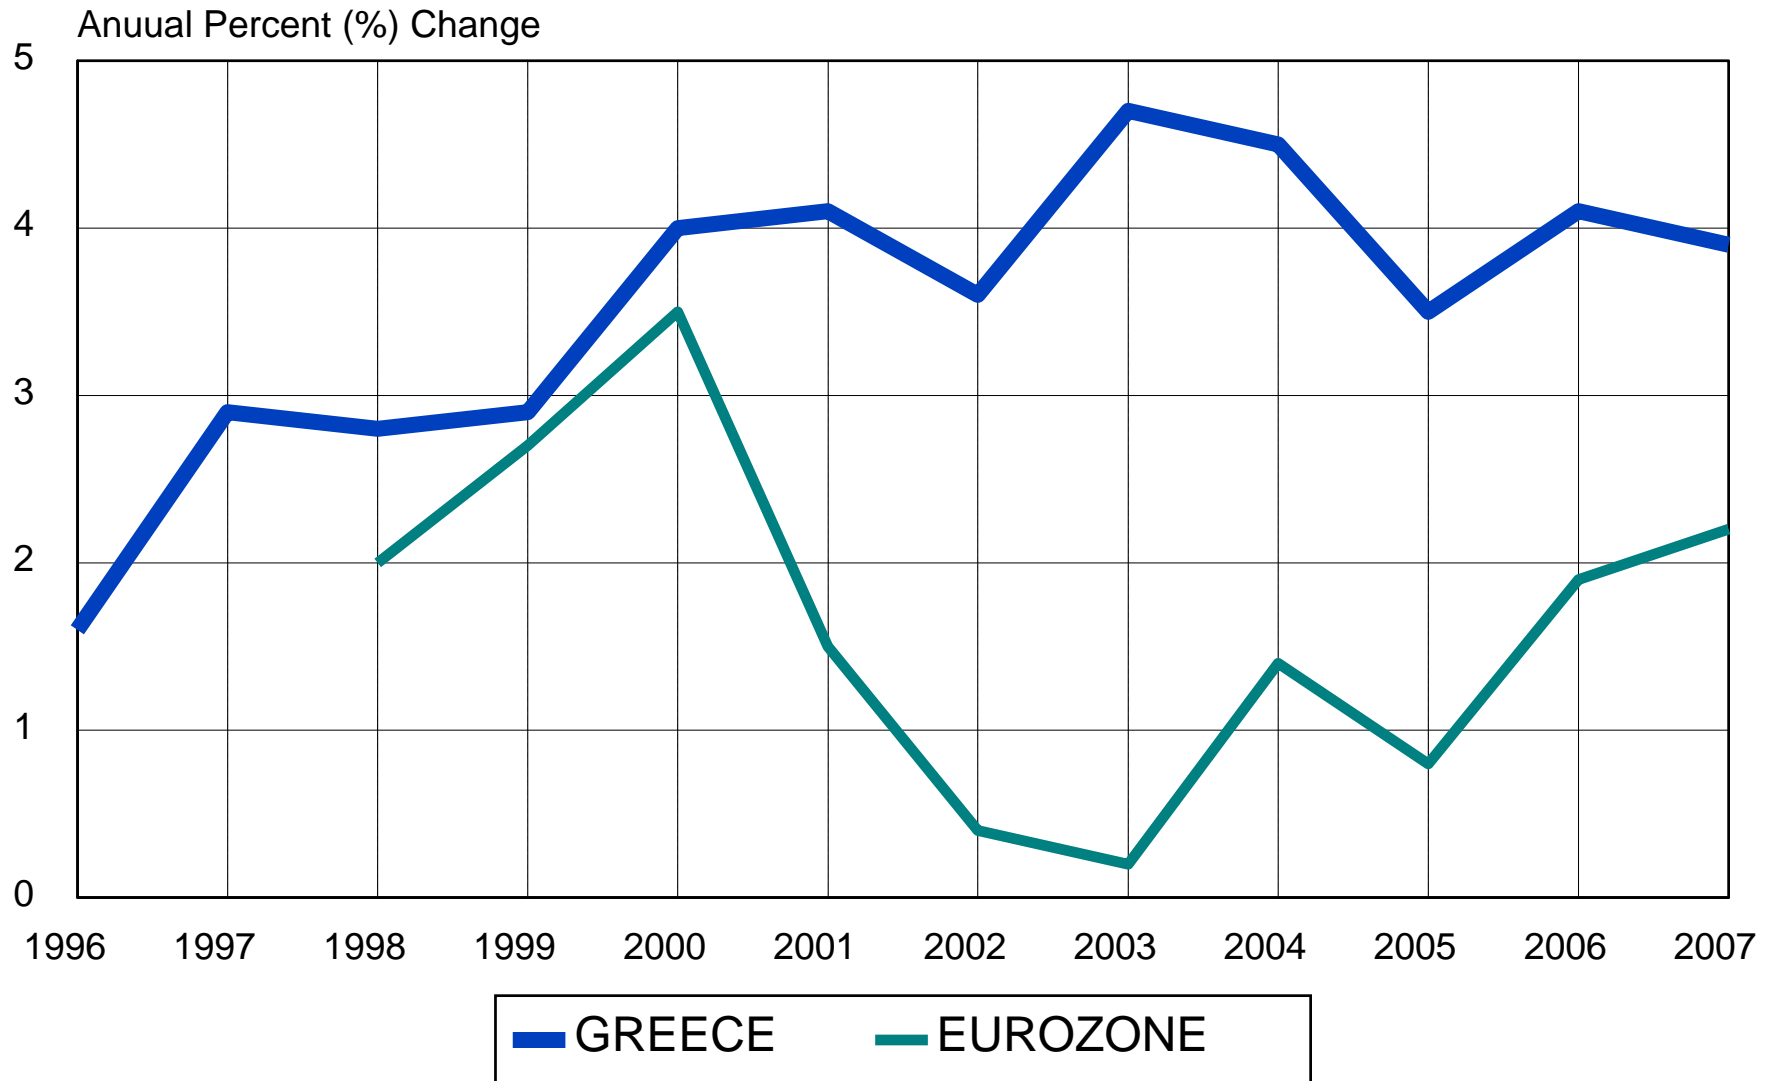

Rate of Consumer Inflation

Consumer inflation has been falling and converging closer to the Euro average, although more progress is needed

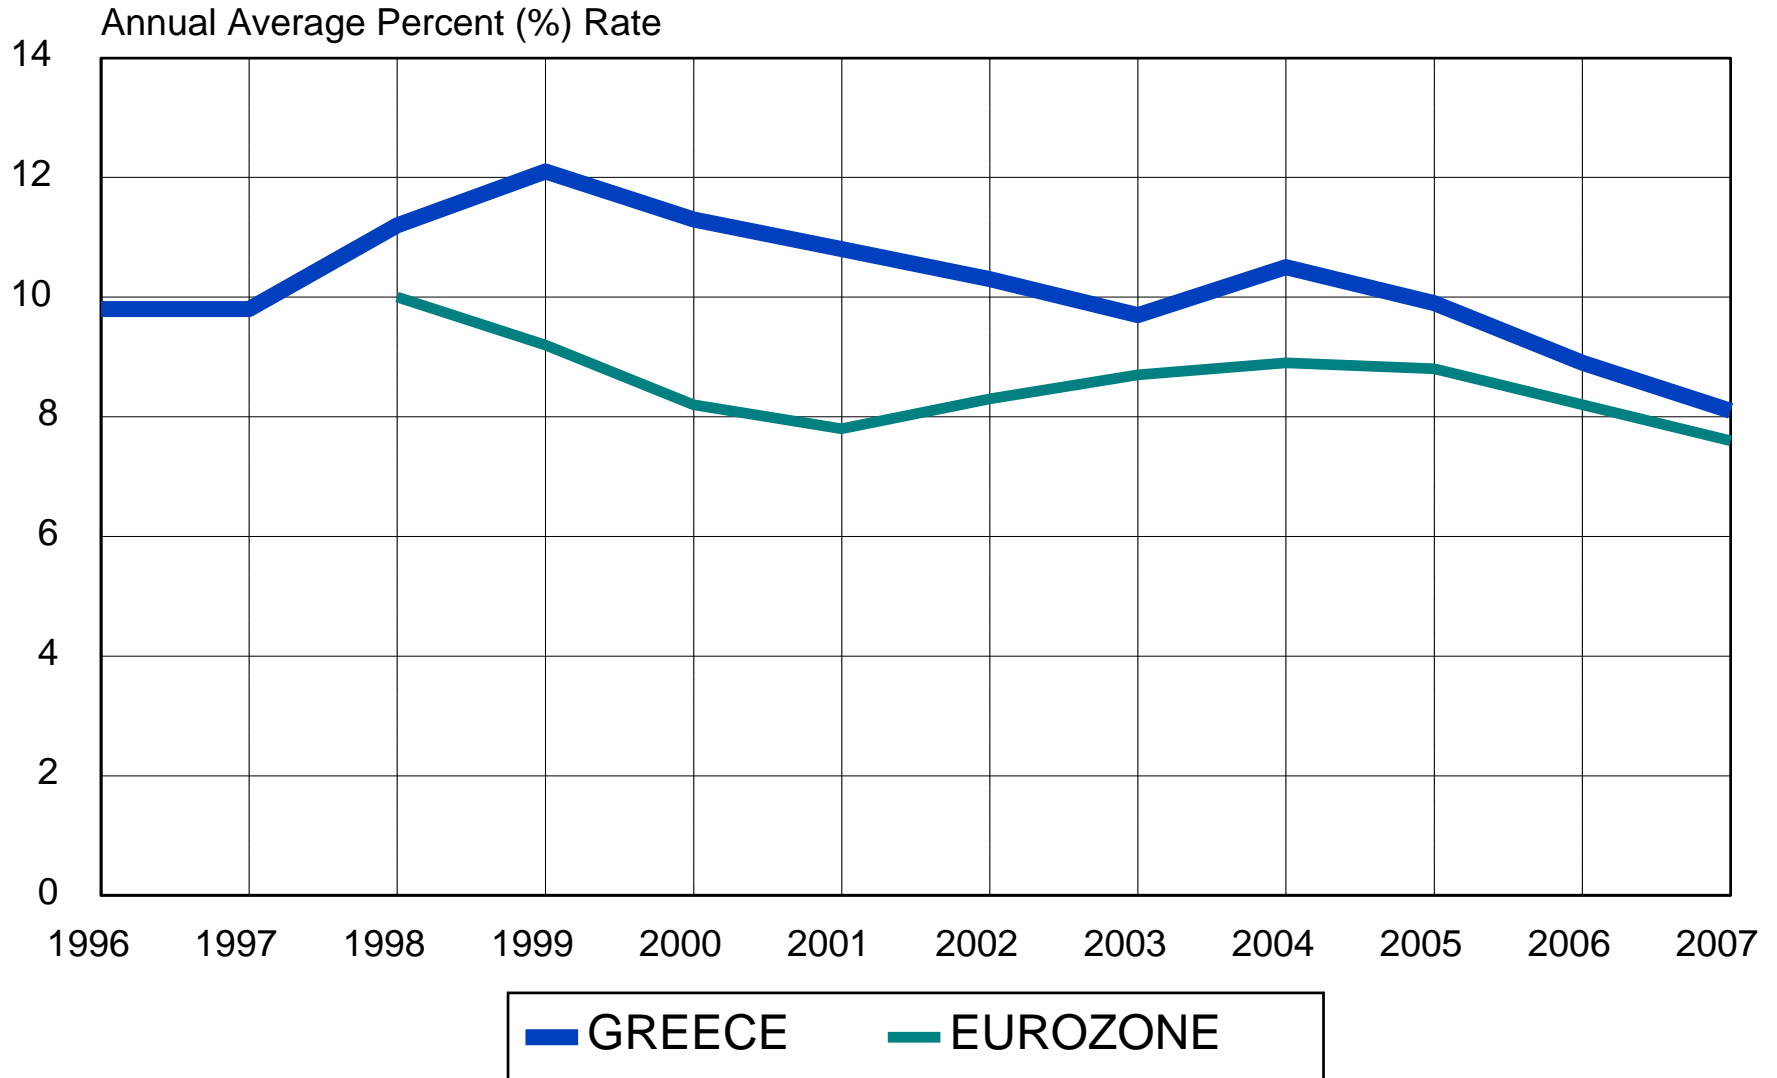

Rate of Growth in Real GDP per Capita

Living standards in Greece are rising twice as fast compared to the Euro Zone average creating converge with its more developed peers

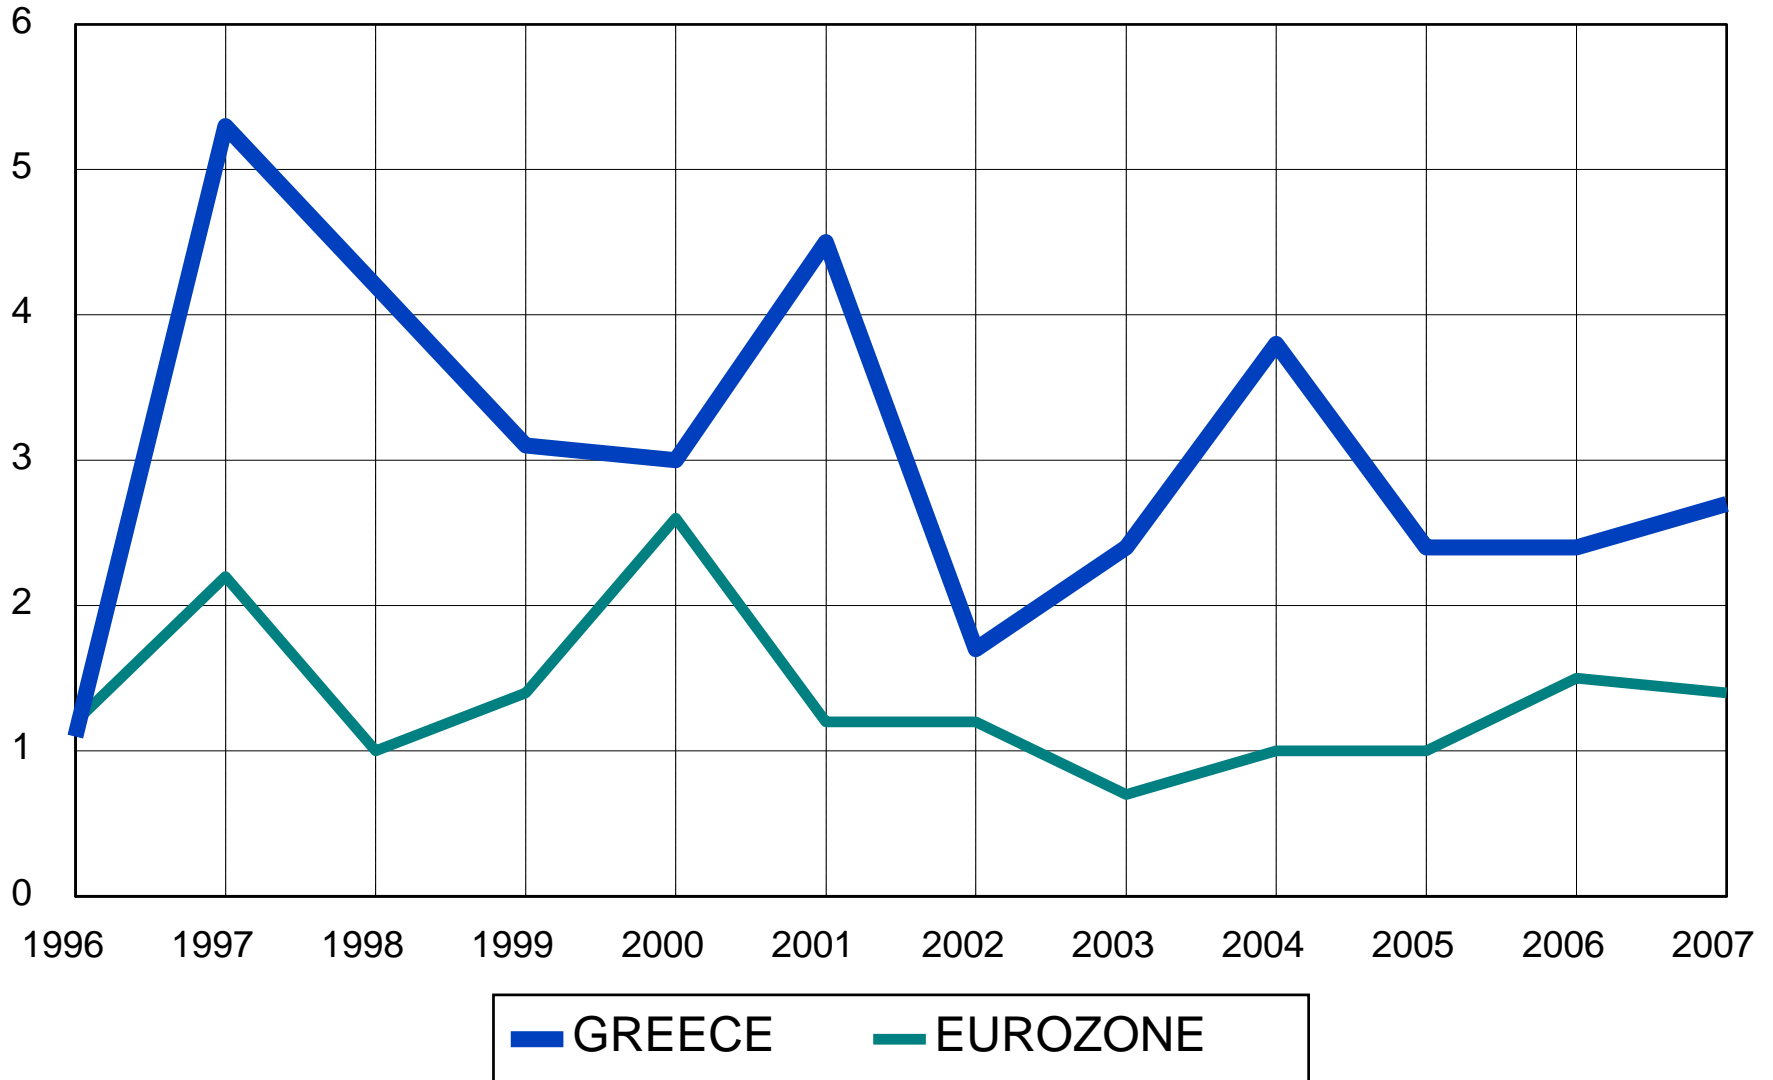

Rate of Unemployment

High growth and structural reforms are lowering the unemployment rate to the Euro average, although more progress is required

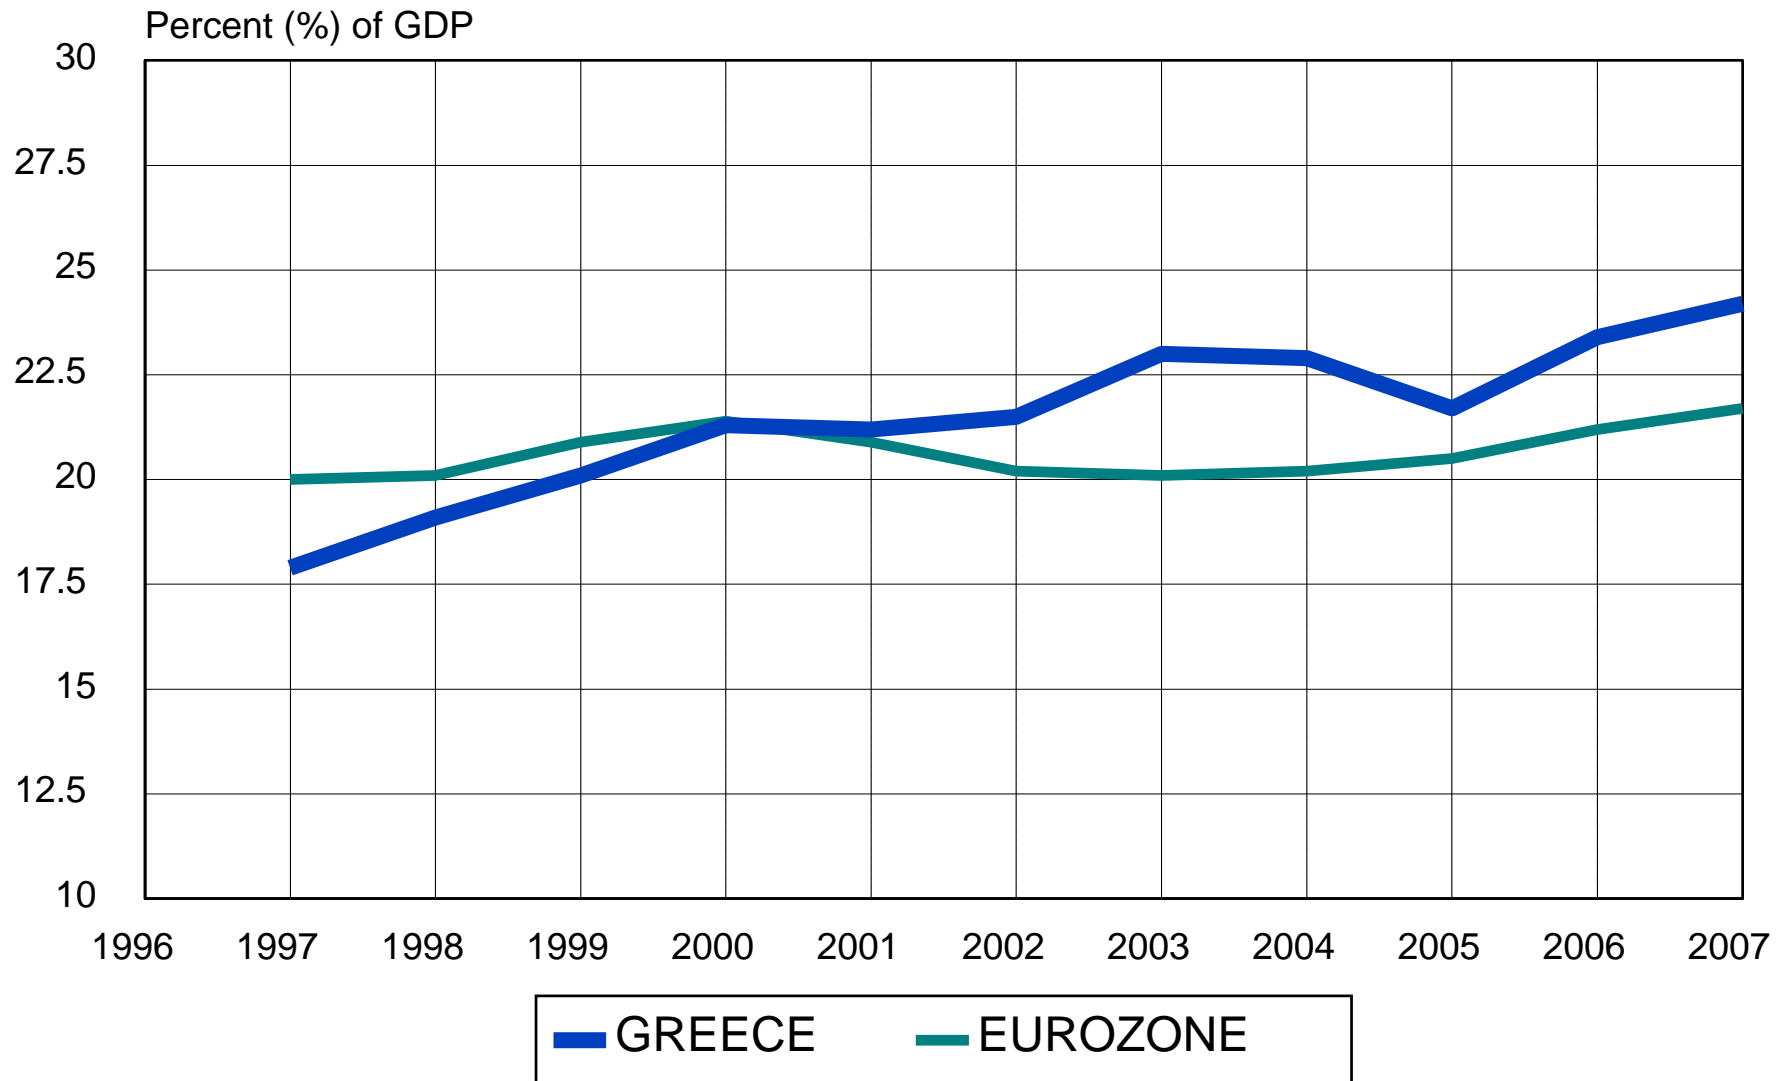

Rate of Productivity Growth

Labour productivity has been rising at more than double the Euro average rate over the past few years

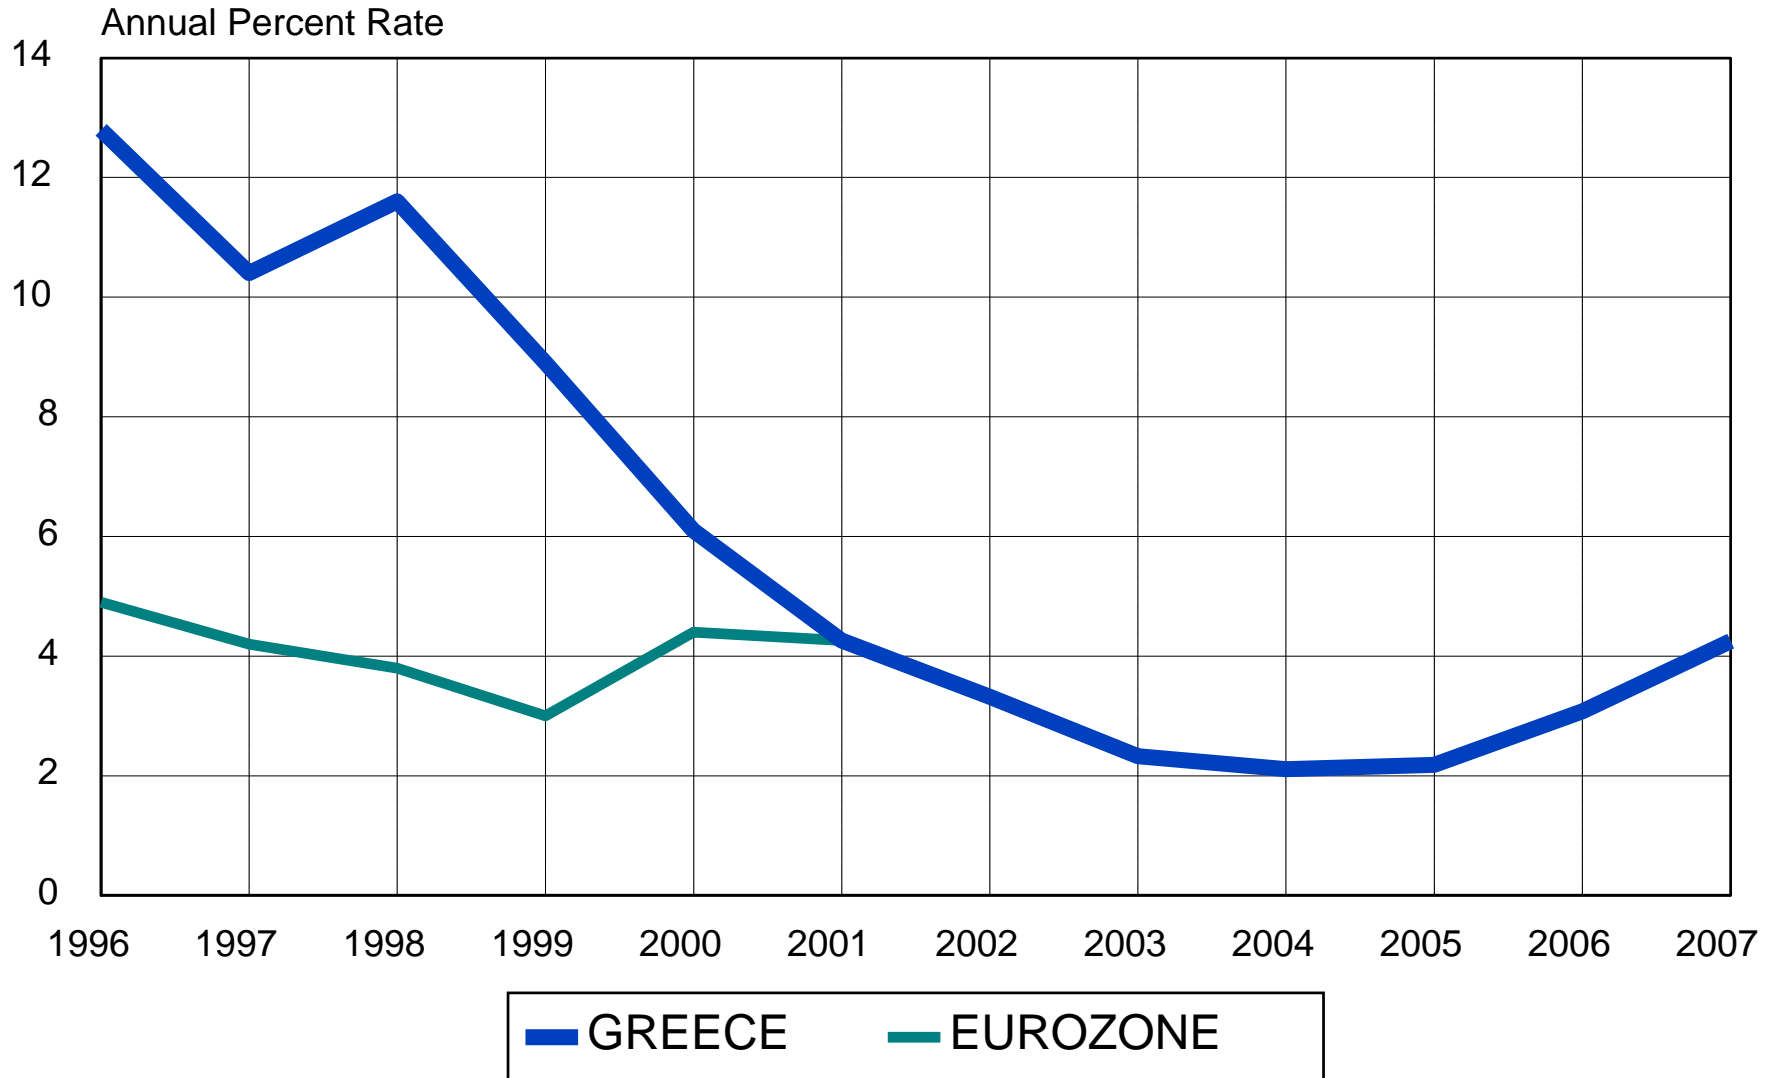

Investment Expenditures as a Percent of GDP

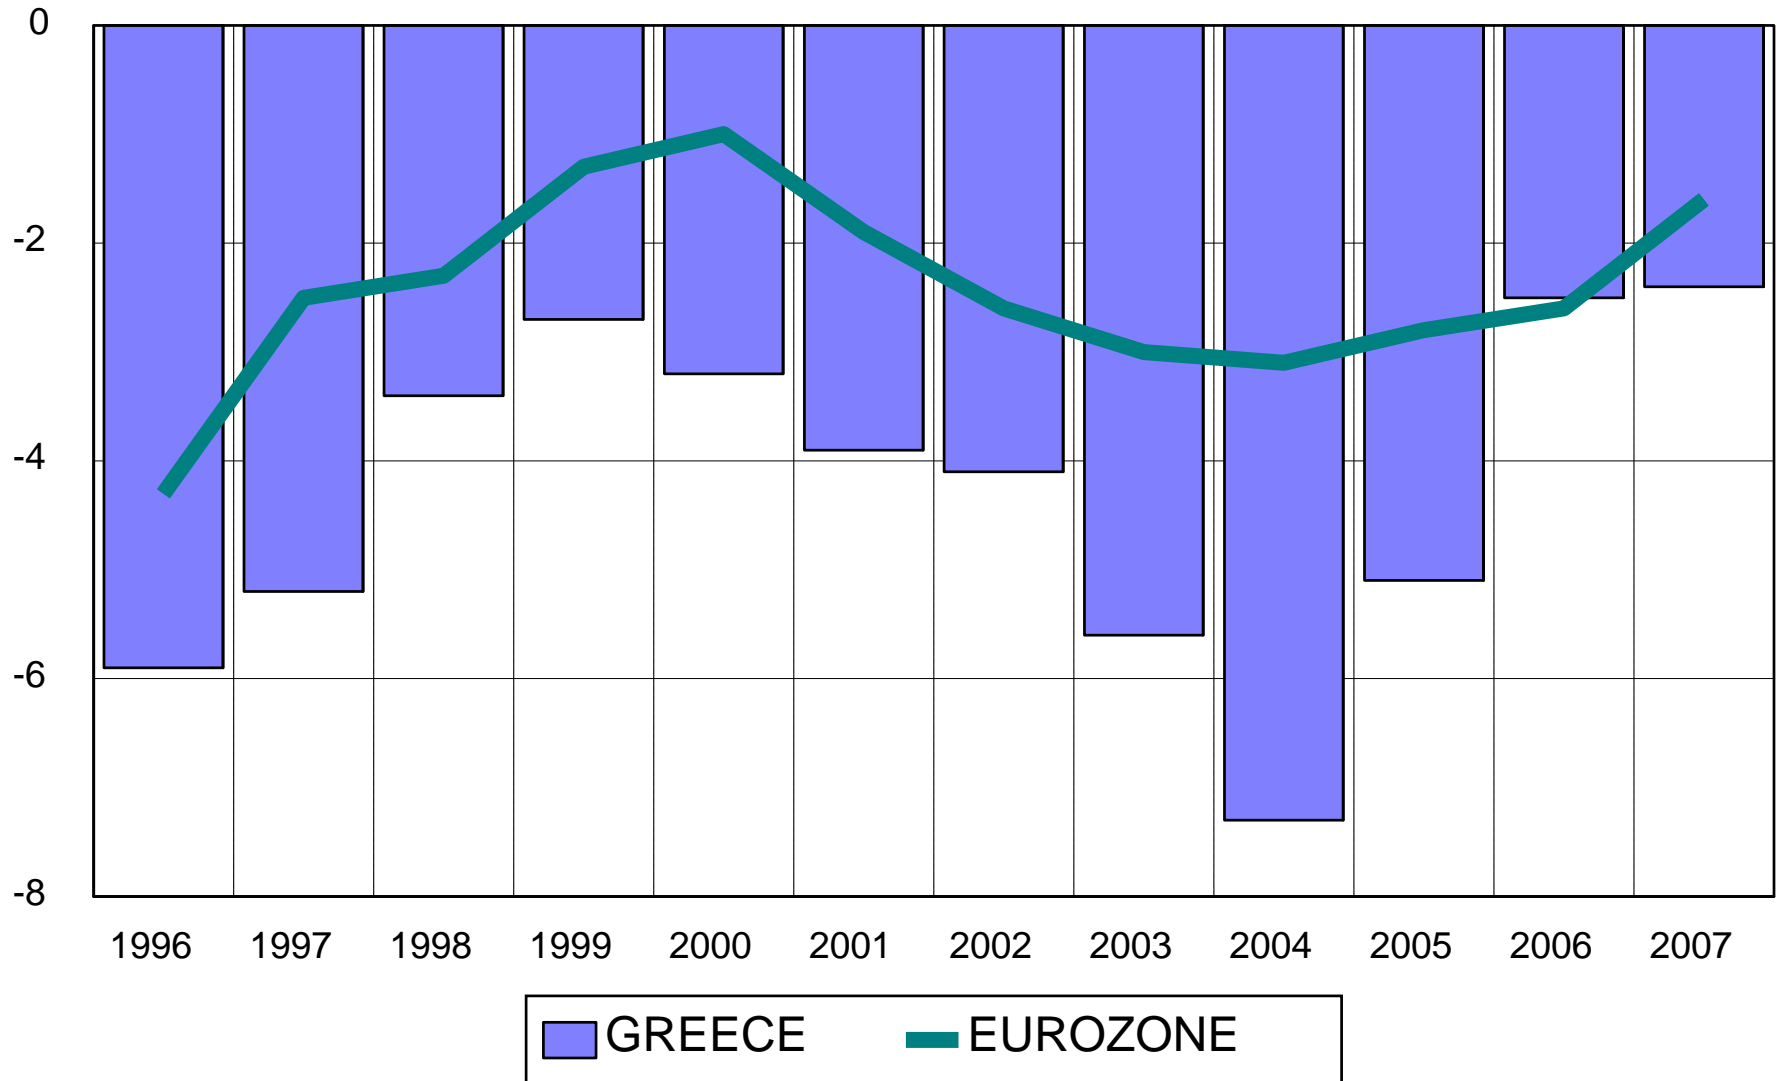

Short-term Interest Rates

3-month interbank deposit rate (EURIBOR)

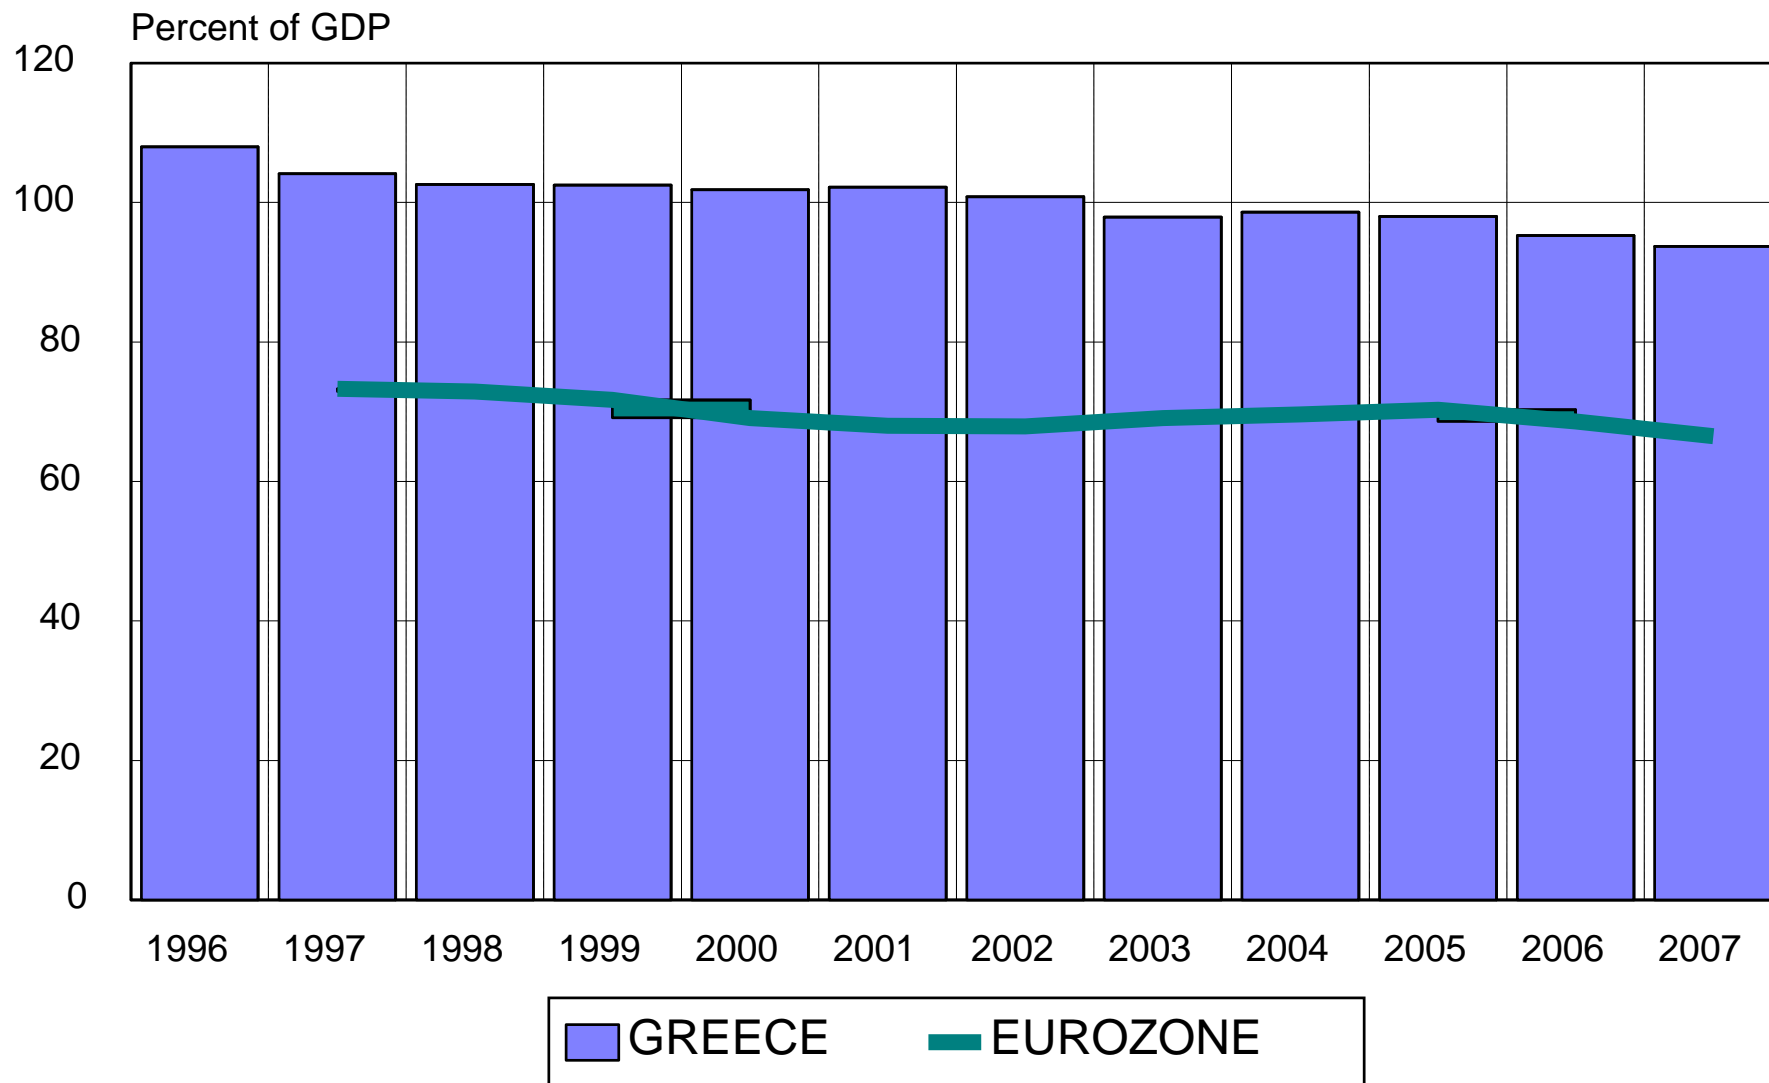

Government Fiscal Balances

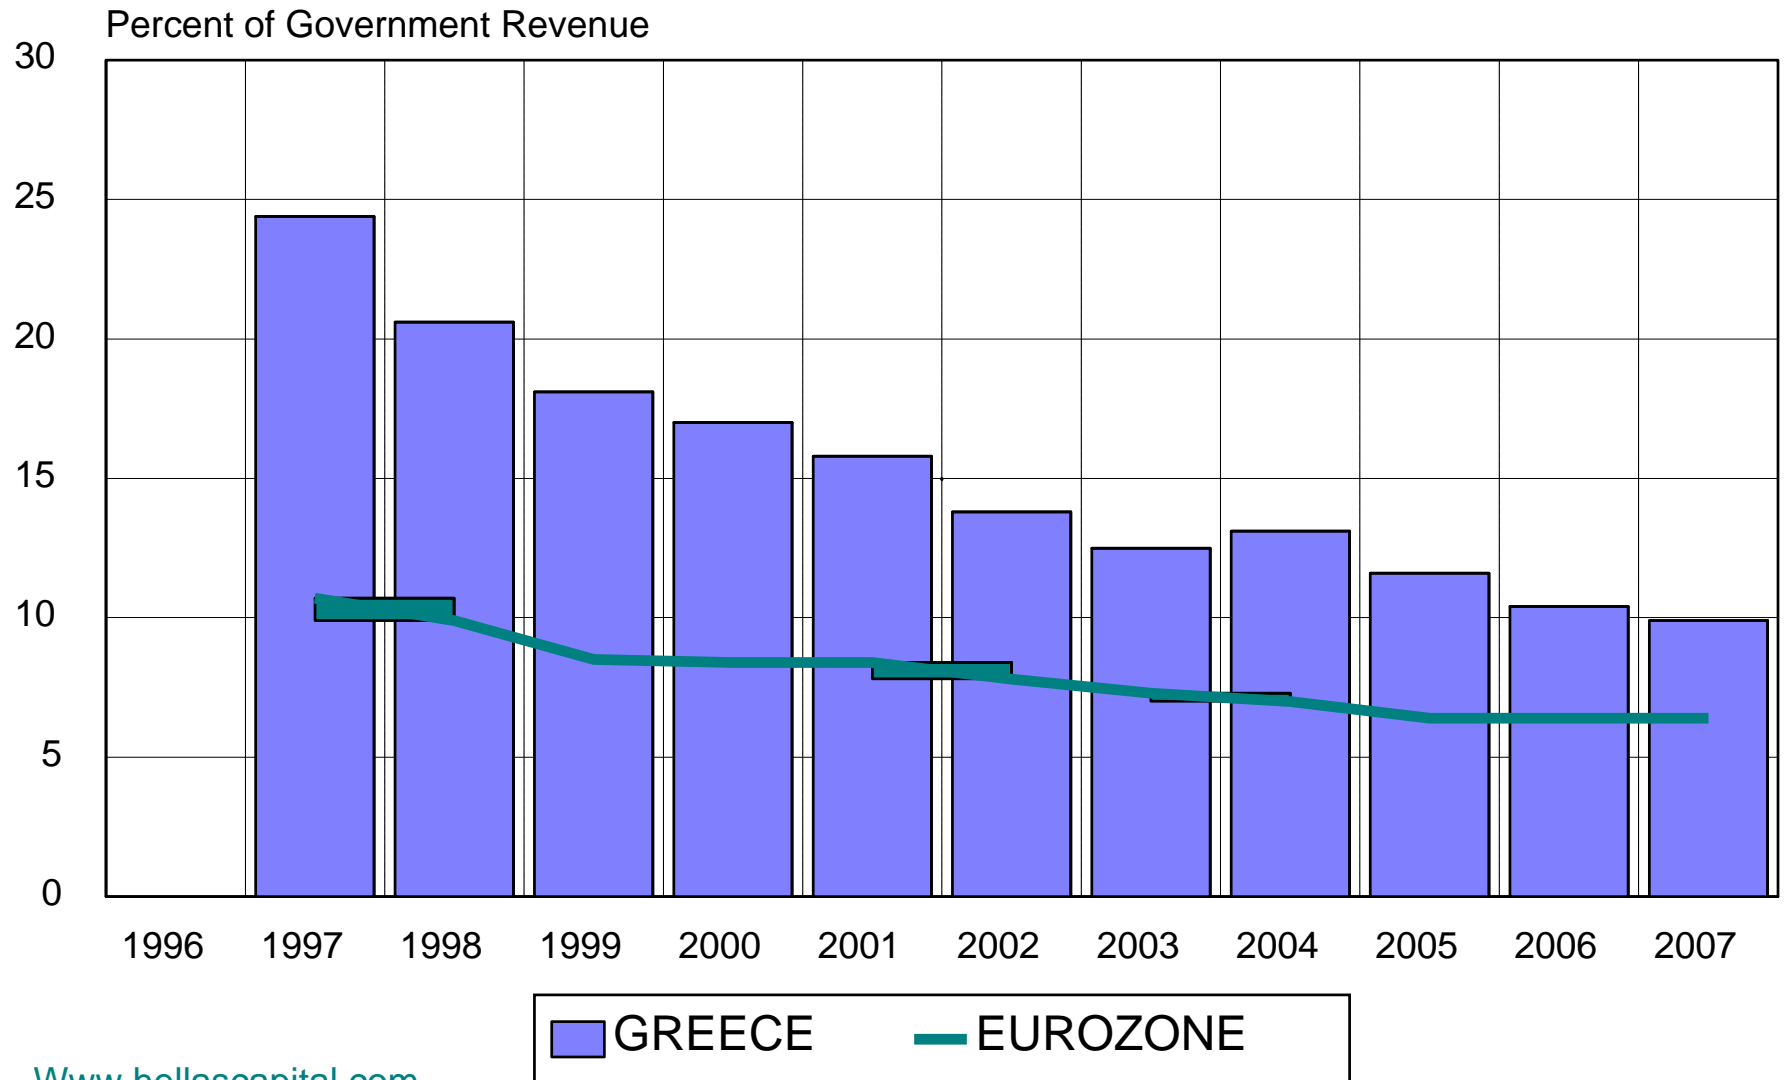

Over the last two years the Greek Government engineered a dramatic turnaround in its fiscal imbalance and brought within range of the Euro average

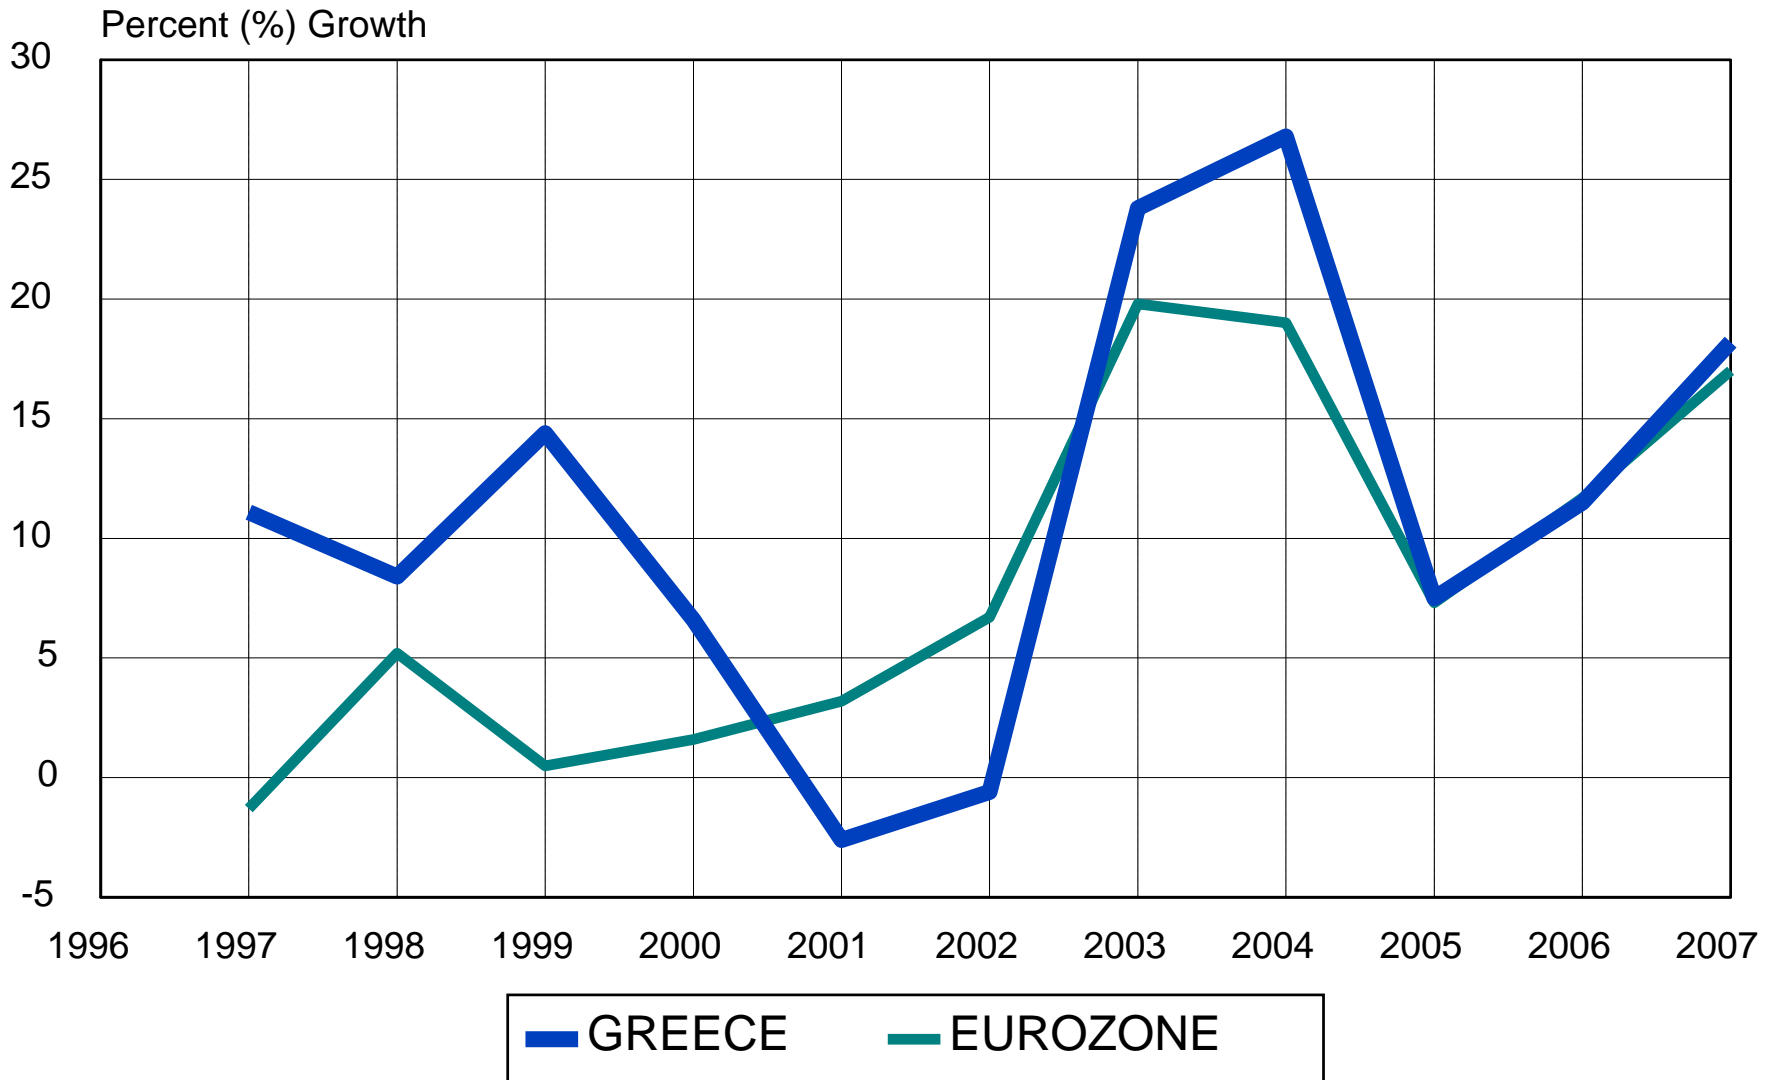

General Government Debt-to-GDP Ratio

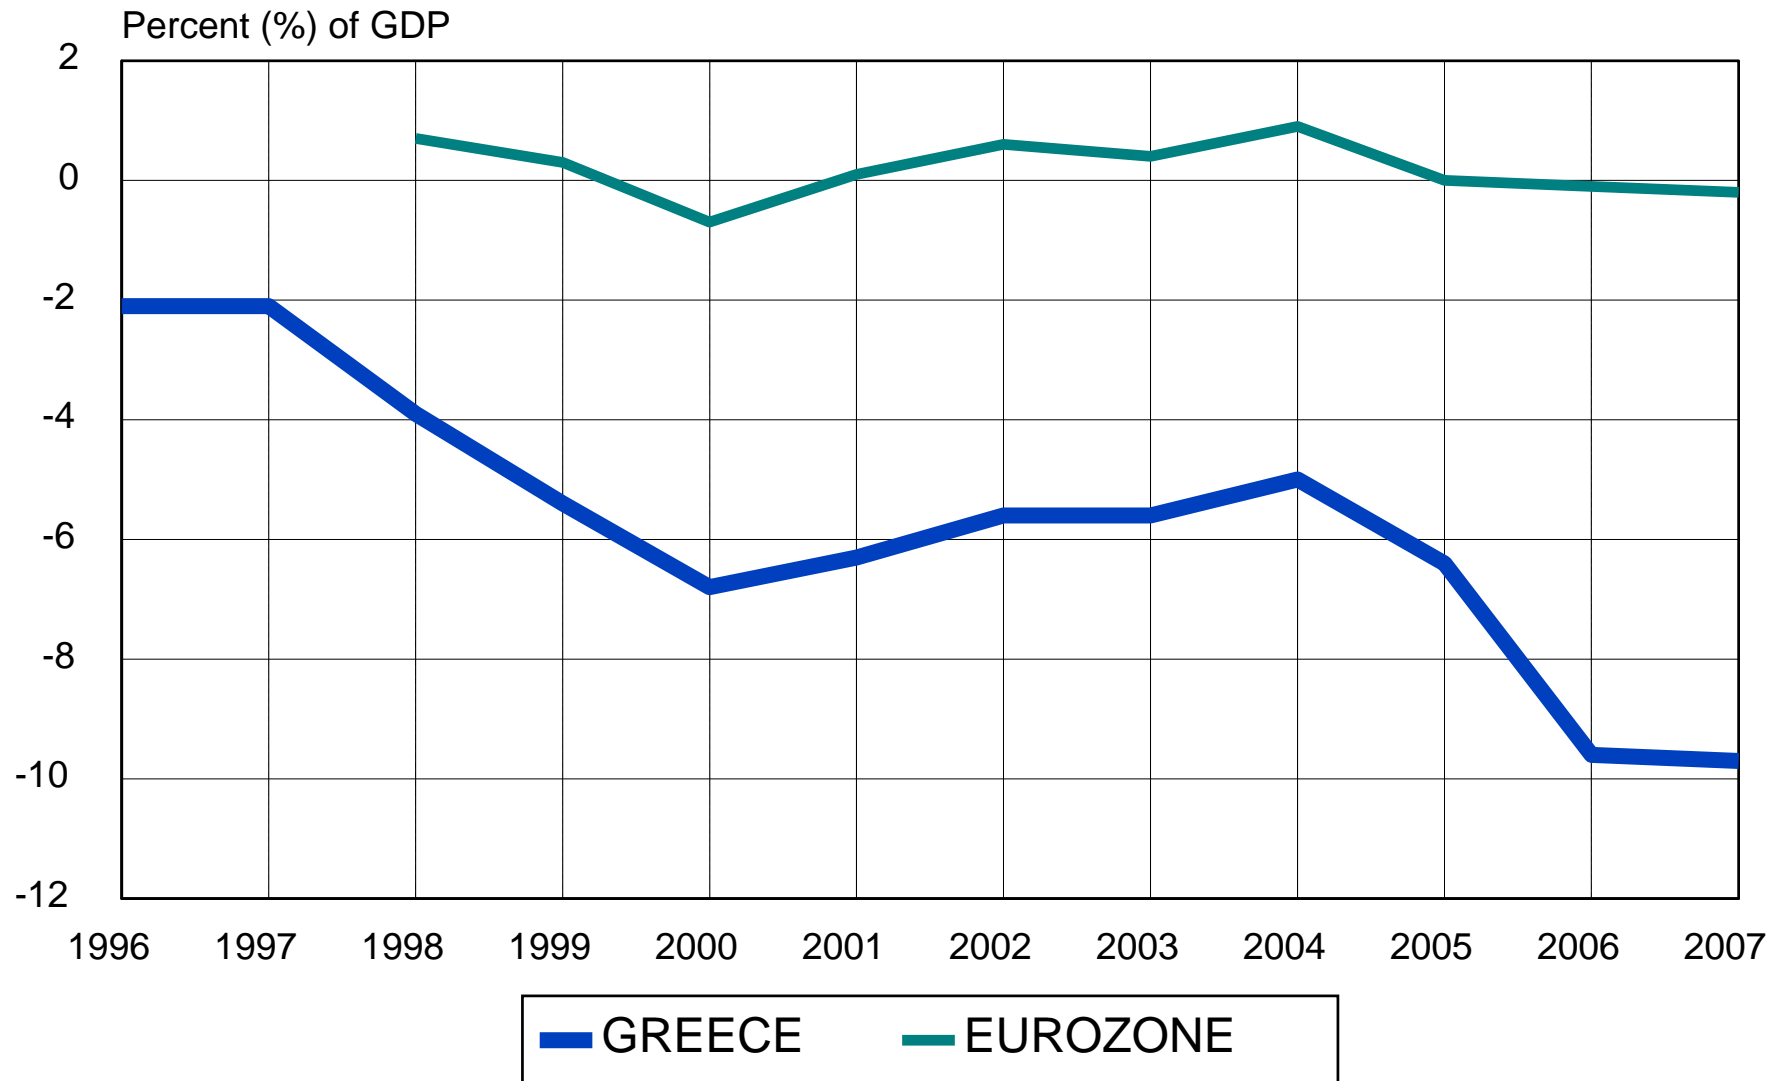

Interest Payments to General Government Revenue

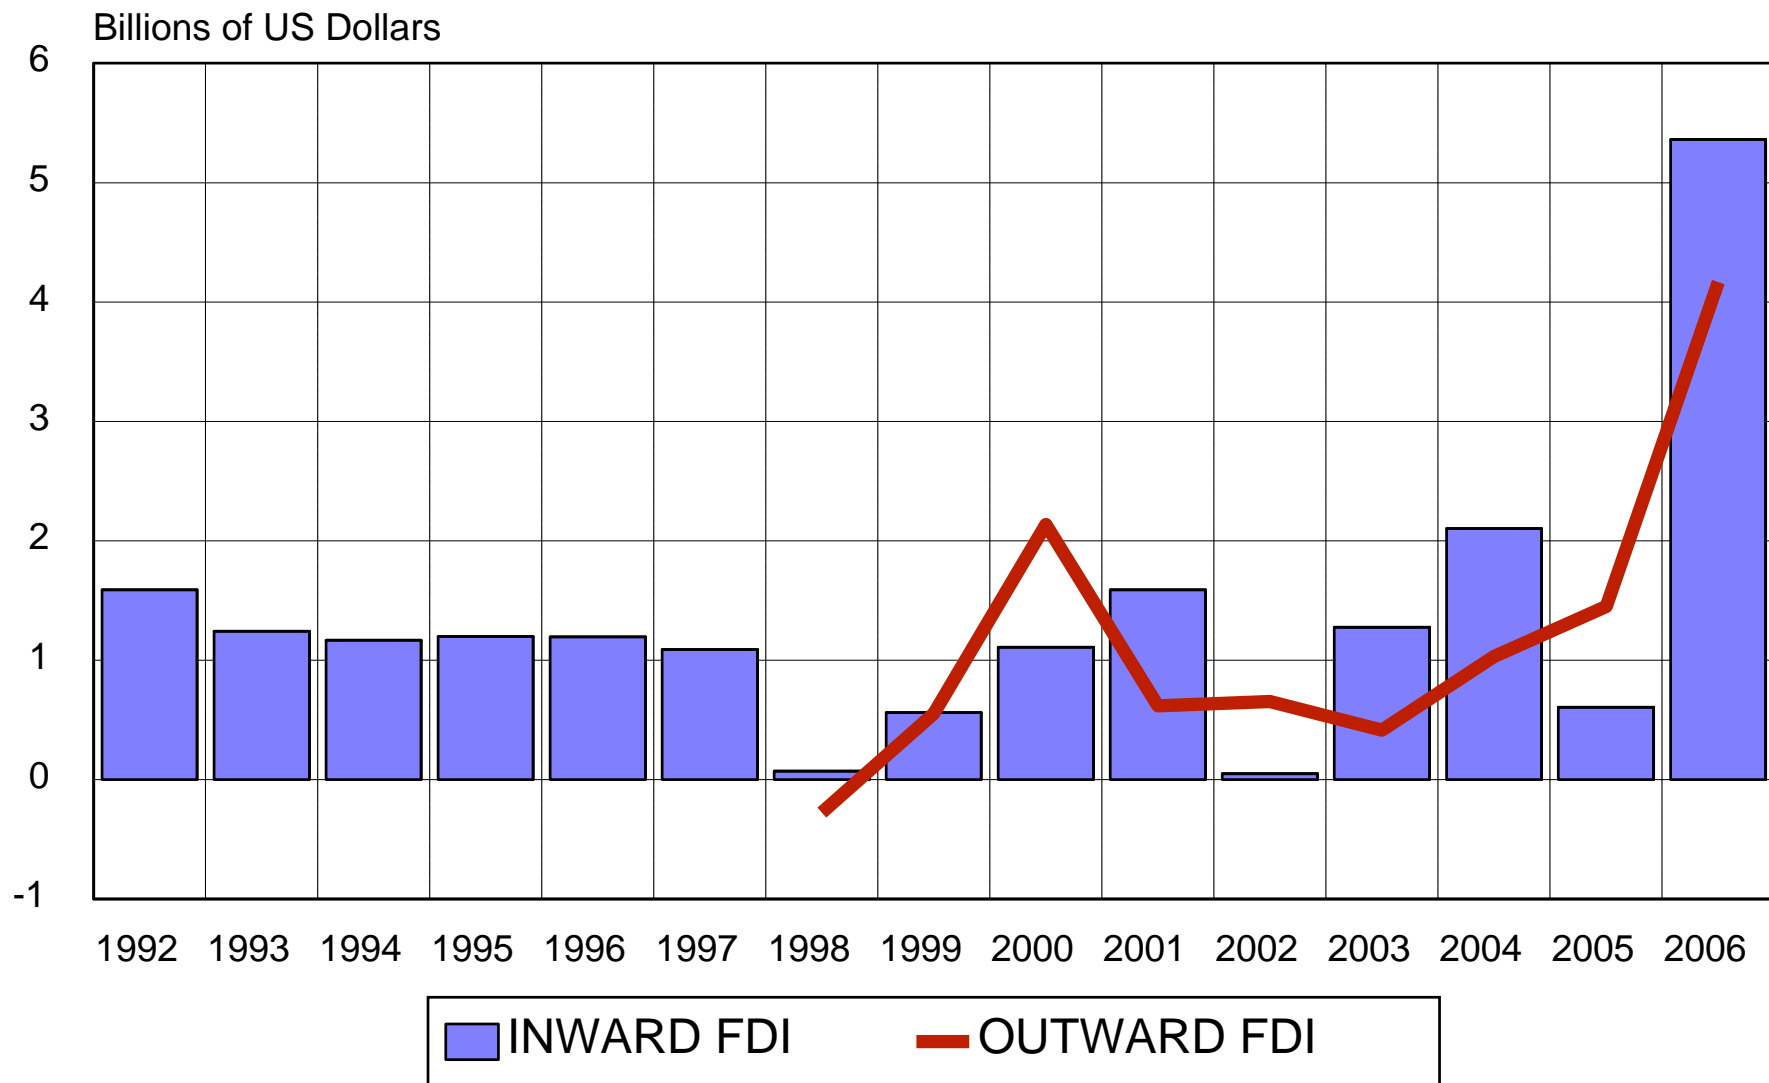

Growth in Exports of Goods & Services

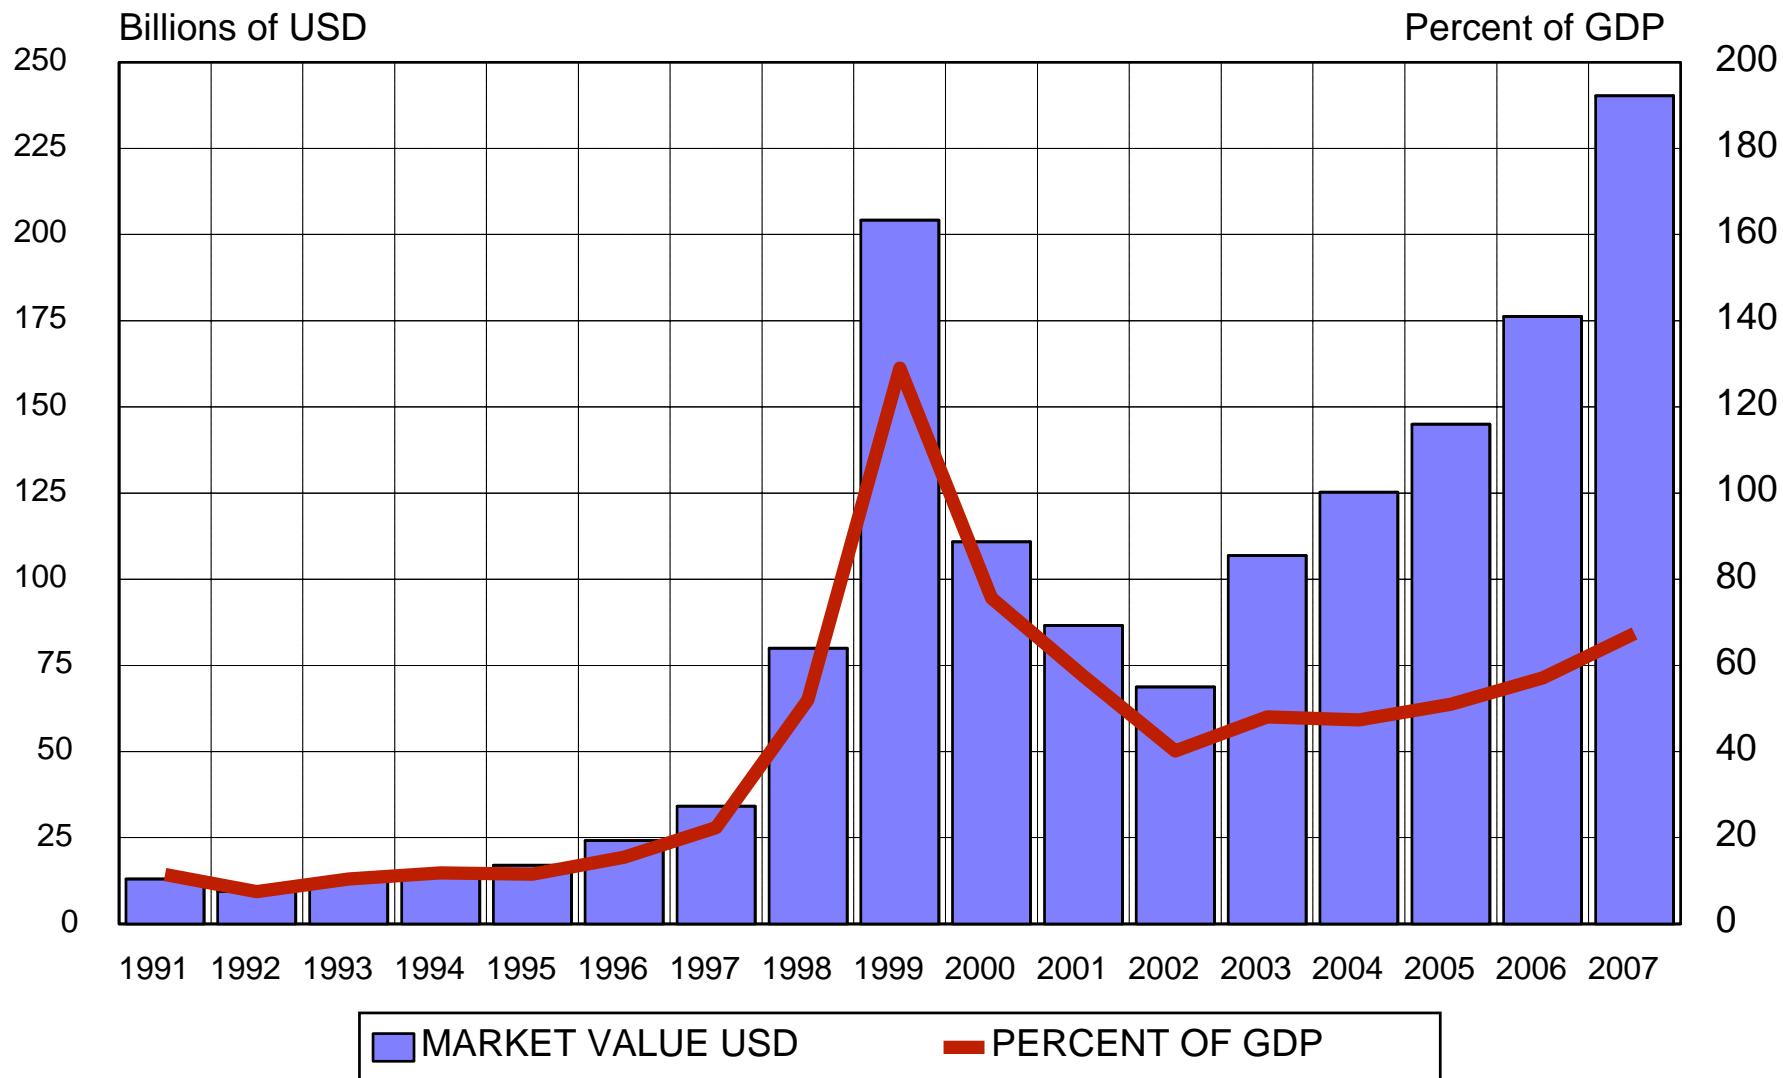

Balance of Payments as % of GDP

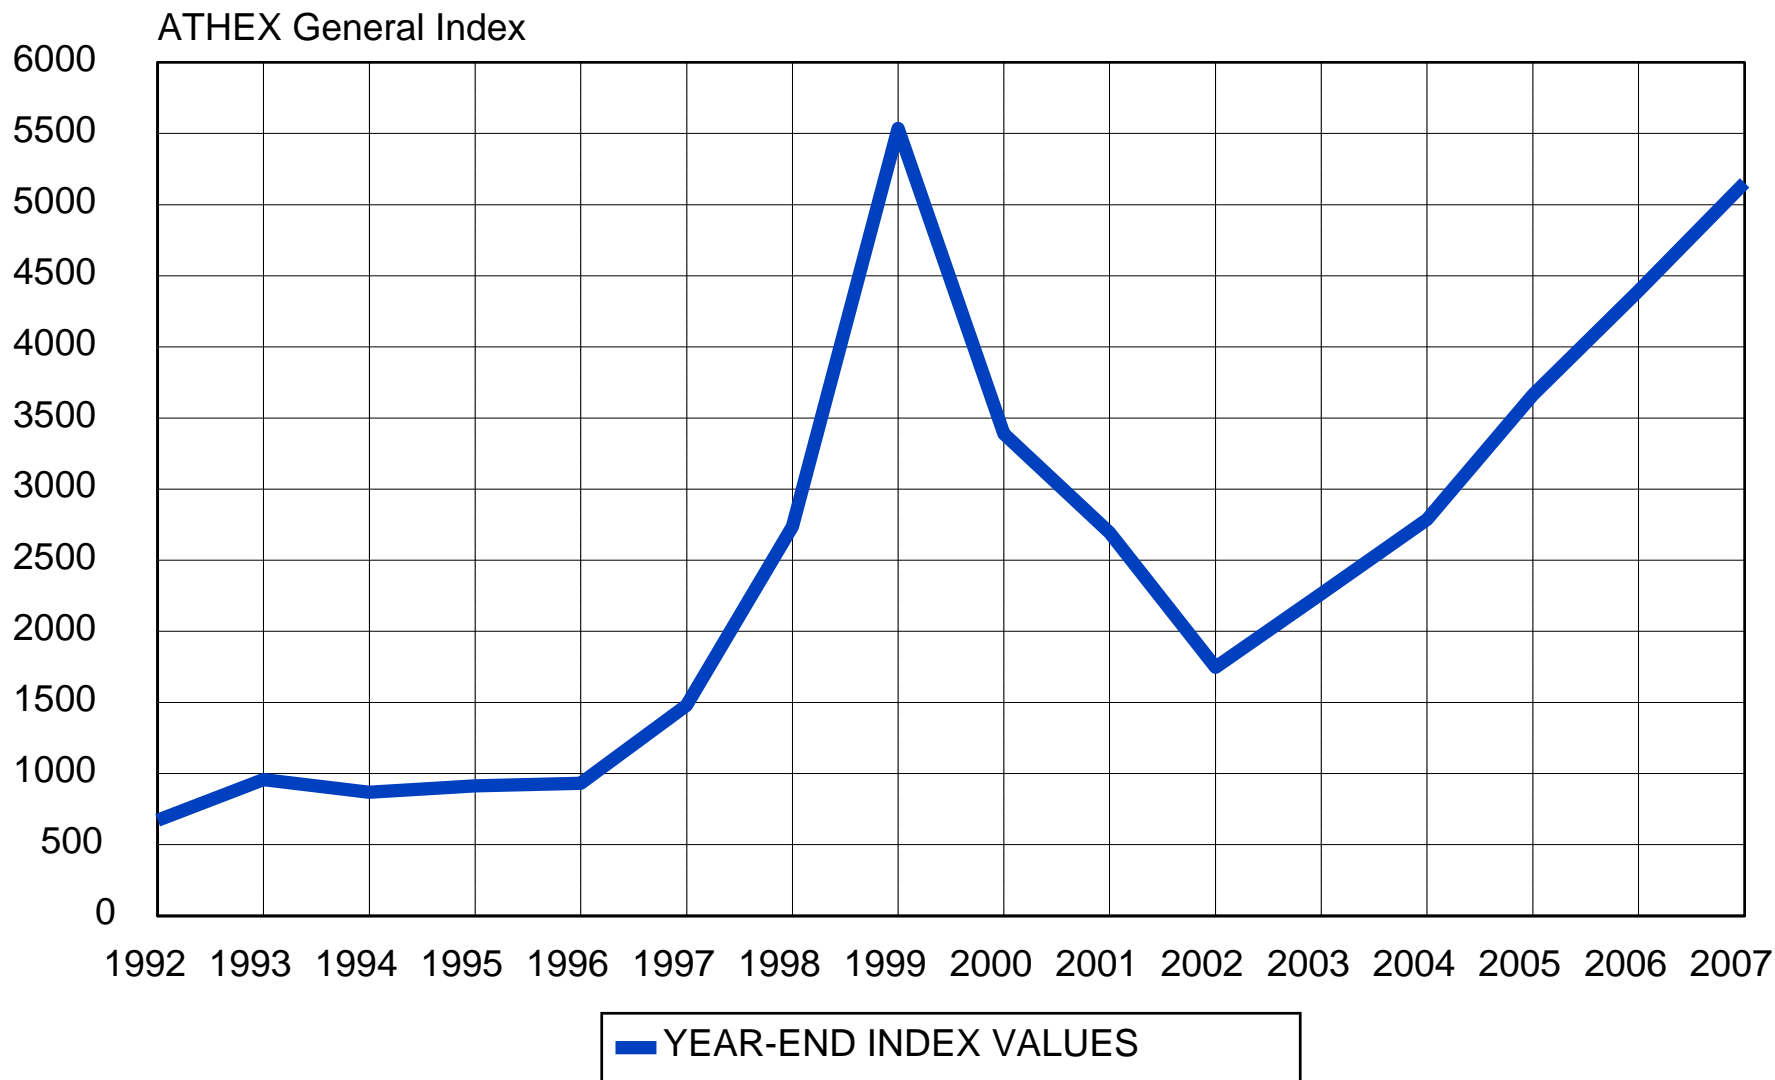

Foreign Direct Investment Flows: 1992 - 2006

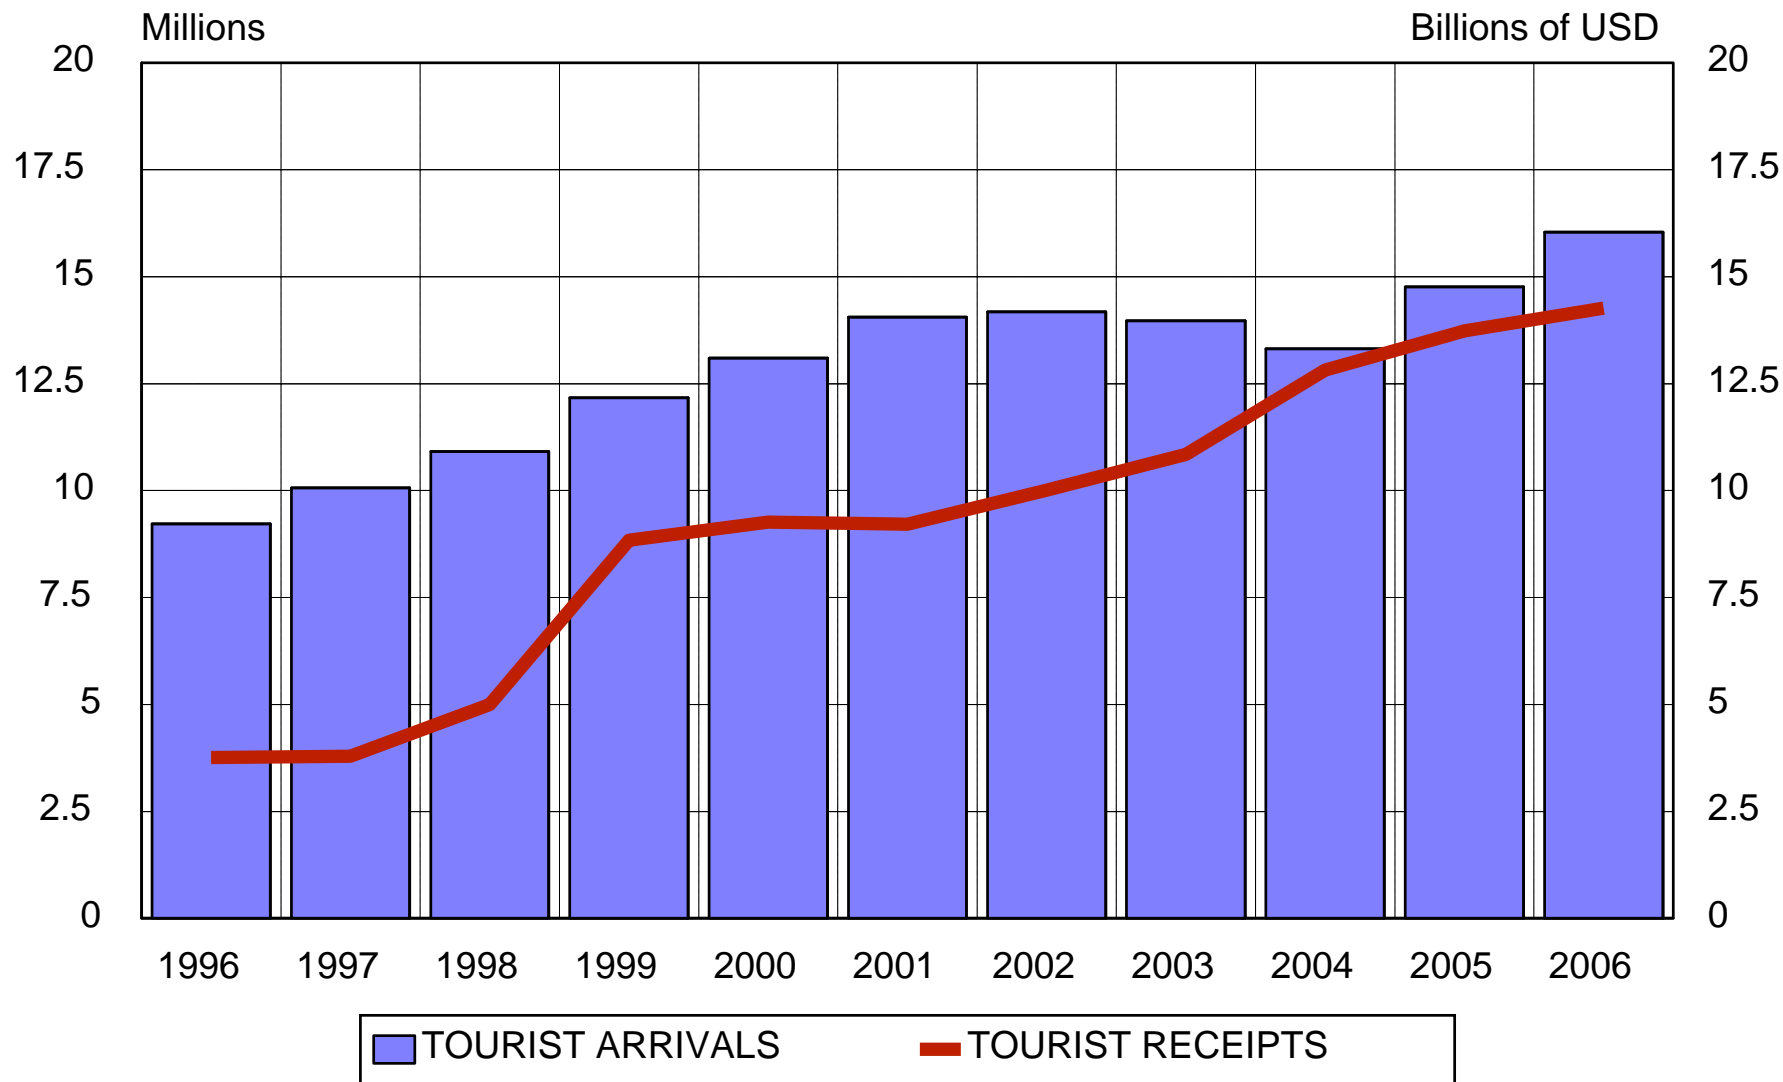

Market Capitalization of Companies Listed on the Athens Stock Exchange (ASE)

ASE Composite General Index of Stock Prices

Tourist Arrivals & Tourism Receipts in Greece

Human Development Index Rank, 2006

Selected Countries

